

NAVAJO HEAD START

"Week of the Young Child" 2023

Navajo Head Start's Educational Services is providing you the opportunity to share classroom activities and parent home activities with your child/ren. The purpose for the "Week of the Young Child" is celebrating the children's learning with their teacher and families. NHS encourages our families to be involved in their child's everyday learning. Let's celebrate by participating in "Week of the Young Child", starting April 3 to April 7, 2023.
